TYPE OF INJURY
BENEFIT TYPE	MINOR INJURY GUIDELINE (MIG)	NON-CATASTROPHIC IMPAIRMENT	CATASTROPHIC IMPAIRMENT
	Your impairment is predominantly a minor injury – “means one or more of a sprain, strain, whiplash associated disorder, contusion, abrasion, laceration or subluxation and includes any clinically associated sequelae to such an injury”. A pre-existing condition may keep you from being classified under the MIG.	Your impairment is not a minor injury, but you are not deemed to have a catastrophic impairment, as defined in the next column.	Catastrophic injuries are the most severe injuries. Your impairment involves paraplegia, tetraplegia, loss of ambulatory mobility or use of an arm, amputation, loss of vision in both eyes, traumatic brain injury, a physical or psychological impairment or combination of impairments equal to a 55% whole person impairment, an impairment that results in a class 4 impairment (marked impairment) in three or more areas of function that precludes useful functioning or a class 5 impairment (extreme impairment) in one or more areas of function that precludes useful functioning due to mental or behavioural disorder.
FINANCIAL* (Eligible for only one of these financial benefits)	Income Replacement Benefits Up to a maximum of $400.00 a week. Eligible if you were earning income before the accident and are unable to return to work. Calculated by taking 70% of your gross income, commencing one week following the loss, for the first two years if you are unable to do your own job; thereafter if you are unable to do any job, until age 65 which decreases until death.
	Non-Earner Benefits Payable after 4 weeks at $185/week if you are completely unable to carry on a normal life. Payable after age 18 and for a maximum of 104 weeks.
	Caregiver Benefits Not available.	Caregiver Benefits Not available.	Caregiver Benefits Available without a waiting period if your injury makes you substantially unable to continue caregiving activities. Maximum of $250/week for first dependent, plus $50 for each additional dependent. At 104 weeks, must meet more stringent “complete inability” test. Terminates once dependents reach age 16, or are no longer a person in need of care. No adjustment at age 65.
